

2009 Dr. Nathan Davis Awards for Outstanding Government Service

20th Anniversary

The American Medical Association invites you to submit nominations for these awards, which are presented for outstanding contributions that promote the art and science of medicine and the betterment of the public health.

Inaugurated by the AMA in 1989, this awards program recognizes significant achievements by elected and career public servants in national, state and local governments.

To uphold the dictates of its constitution, the American Medical Association (AMA), on behalf of its members, will salute the recipients of the 2009 Dr. Nathan Davis Awards for Outstanding Government Service, named for the founder of the AMA. Through these awards, the AMA strives to encourage and stimulate public recognition for the highest standards of service throughout the levels of government. The awards underscore the significant accomplishments attained by men and women who are giving of themselves to advance the well-being of all.

Please nominate one or more individuals in any of the categories cited herein who uphold and advance the criteria listed.
